PEACE WE NEED YOU

This world is so torn and broken. You may not agree, but it is!
Why couldn't we all see where it was headed long before its brokenness?
Perhaps, some seen it coming and tried to warn us to turn to a higher power for help. We've been told there is power in numbers.
With all the police brutality and domestic violence that happened, it left behind many broken hearts from experiencing the loss of their loved ones. Let's not forget the deadly effects that hit home when COVID-19 came wailing in. Through this brokenness, it leaves us to band together to mourn their loss. As a result, my heart is extremely heavy! You were told to pray for our leaders, mothers, fathers, children, brothers, sisters, family, and even yourself. Then there was the prayer for freedom, wisdom, knowledge, and understanding. Most importantly, the asking of

Mirror, Mirror, PEACE.
